

I do not want the Consumer Bankers Association to be able to use the "established business relationship" exemption to get around the Indiana telephone privacy law in effect at this time. Please do not weaken this law in any way.